Volunteer Program

The Volunteer Program is part of the San Police VOLT Unit. The Volunteer Program was implemented in the fall of 1996, as a complement to the San Jose Police Department’s Community Policing Strategy.

The program has become a vital arm of the department, working closely with the community to foster relationships and trust with the community.

The Volunteer Program provides opportunity for the public to provide input and have an understanding of the San Jose Police Department. It is highly valued for its contribution in bringing the department and community together.

VOLT is responsible for the recruitment, application processing and placement of volunteers within the department. The VOLT program consists of the program manager and program director of the VOLT Unit.

VOLT Program Organization

VOLT consists of a team of dedicated, paid staff led by a Sergeant who reports to the Lieutenant of Special Operations. All phases of the Volunteer Program have clear lines of command and supervision as shown in the following chart:

Chapter 3 Volunteer Program

What is a Volunteer?

A volunteer is a non-paid Department member. They work side by side with Department personnel in a variety of assignments. They must pass a background investigation, and participate in a volunteer training academy. Volunteers are required to volunteer at least 16 hours of service per month, or complete a specified project each month. It is a volunteer’s responsibility to record their own respective hours via the dept online timesheet system.

The San Jose Police Department provides several volunteer opportunities. Units, such as the Police Photo Lab, Recruiting, Permits, and police department tours have achieved outstanding results with volunteers.

As a volunteer you may participate in any VOLT sponsored training, including the VOLT academy. Volunteers are encouraged to participate in the ride-along program to better understand how the police department functions as an organization.

The volunteer program is a longer term commitment and should be viewed as such by anyone wishing to apply. Volunteers have been known to stay in the program for many years.

Advantages of Volunteering

Volunteering with the San Jose Police Department is a great way to give back to your community and be part of something meaningful. Volunteers develop many personal and professional contacts. Volunteers gain a better understanding of the issues and opportunities in their community.

Chapter 7 Volunteer Responsibilities

Steps in the Selection Process

To become a San Jose Police Department Volunteer, the first step is to visit our website, www.sjpd.org and click on the volunteer tab, or call the VOLT office at 408-277-8658 and request an application.

The selection process is rigorous and takes from 10 to 14 weeks. After you have submitted the application you will be asked to come in for a personal interview. We perform a background investigation and fingerprint check on candidates who have passed the interview. The VOLT program manager then schedules your training. The successful completion of which authorizes you to work on specific duties assigned by the supervisor or program manager.

Initial Interview: The initial interview and application process are the most critical because they are the initial steps to either acceptance or rejection on the part of both the agency and the volunteer applicant.

You will be interviewed by the program manager, or unit supervisor. During the initial interview, the interviewer will discuss your reason and motivation for volunteering, your area of interest and the hours you can devote to the program.

Personal History Statement (PHS): If you successfully complete the interview, you will be provided a Personal History Statement (PHS) which, when completed and submitted, begins the background check.

Fingerprints: Upon approval and return of the PHS, all prospective candidates are fingerprinted. A fingerprint appointment will be scheduled at the Santa Clara County Sheriff’s Department Live Scan Unit.
Chapter 7 Volunteer Responsibilities

Background Investigation: The VOLT program manager coordinates the background investigation for the volunteer applicant. The extent of the investigation will be based on the sensitivity of the assignment. The investigation includes Records check, Criminal History, Warrants, and a Department of Motor Vehicles check.

Volunteer acceptance: When you have successfully passed the background investigation phase, you will be notified by the VOLT program manager or unit supervisor where you will be assigned. You will complete additional paperwork and sign an acceptance offer for the volunteer program.

Training and Orientation: After you have signed the Volunteer Acceptance Form, you will attend the training and orientation seminar conducted by the VOLT program manager or supervisor, which includes:

- Reviewing the rules of the Volunteer Program
- Signing of the Volunteer Contract by the VOLT Program Manager
- Completing the Volunteer Acceptance Form with the Unit Commander’s signature
- Discussing the roles of the Program Manager and Supervisor
- Touring the Department you will work in
- Reviewing department policies and procedures

You will be placed into the Department’s Unit and begin your specific training with the Unit’s Supervisor.
Chapter 7 Volunteer Responsibilities

Volunteer Academy Training

The San Jose Police Department operates a very comprehensive and efficient academy for training its volunteer team members.

As a volunteer you will learn department policies and procedures, with an emphasis on confidentiality and safety. In preparation for service, you will be provided basic academic training on the organization and functions of the San Jose Police Department. Assignment-specific training will generally be on-the-job and provided by your immediate supervisor. The training will be focused on the unique tasks of the specific assignment. The supervisor will remain with you until you are competent to perform the job alone.

Chapter 7 Volunteer Responsibilities

Volunteer Responsibilities

The Volunteer program has certain expectations from its volunteers. As a volunteer you may have some job responsibilities that are specific to the job that you are assigned to and some general responsibilities. Following are some such requirements which will assist in smooth functioning of the program.

Volunteers will be responsible for notifying their program manager or work supervisor when they will be taking an extended leave of absence.

Record monthly hours and activity:

Volunteers will record their own hours volunteered each month utilizing the online time sheet tracking system. Time sheets will be due the 7th of each month for the previous month. Volunteers will log on with their user name and password and follow the instructions attached.

Volunteers will call the program manager or work supervisor when they will be absent from a scheduled work day.

Encourage others to volunteer:

The Volunteer program relies on its volunteers to recruit more volunteers. Recruitment is an ongoing process, accomplished by everyone involved in the program. The most effective recruitment is done by satisfied volunteers. Volunteers are encouraged to share their excitement with others who may qualify for the program.
Identification Card:

Volunteers are required to wear their identification card when they are at all police department facilities. Positions would include the Police Administration Building (PAB), T.A.B.S. centers, or any other police facility. Volunteers will be given instructions by the program manager on how and where to obtain the I.D. card.

When entering a police facility, volunteers will attach the I.D. card where it is clearly visible on their clothing. When leaving a police facility, Volunteers will remove the I.D. card and place it in a secure location.

Volunteers are NOT to show or wear their volunteer I.D. card while away from a police facility. Any abuse of this policy can result in the immediate termination of the Volunteer assignment and removal from the program.

Remember being a Volunteer is a privilege:

Always remember being a volunteer is a privilege and not a right. Volunteers are expected to complete their agreement with the police department. Although volunteers give their time without pay, volunteers must observe the department’s policies and procedures and respect the decorum of the police department at all times.
