MEDIA ADVISORY

The San Jose Police Department's Auto Theft Unit in conjunction with the Regional Auto Theft Task Force recently arrested some individuals and recovered stolen vehicles that had been taken from exercise facilities within the city. The suspects obtained the victims keys from inside of the businesses. In most cases, the keys were either left unattended or were taken from lockers. Once the keys were obtained, the victims vehicle were then taken. In several cases personal identification and credit cards left in vehicles were used to make fraudulent purchases.

Anyone that may have information on cases that are similar in nature to those described here is urged to call Investigator John Hartman of the San Jose Police Department's Auto Theft Unit at (408) 277-4051. Person's wishing to remain anonymous may call Crime Stoppers at (408) 947-STOP
